All statements refer to merchandise I leave at my own risk at CP & Company. I will not hold CP & Company responsible for loss, theft or damage. I understand all items are owned by me and must be covered under my own homeowners insurance or renters policy until items are sold.

All merchandise must be in sellable condition, free of any defects and meeting all current safety regulations. All clothing must be brought in on hangers, and all toys, equipment, household items, and furniture must be in working order (including batteries if needed).

All prices are determined by CP & Company. After thirty (30) days the price of all unsold items are reduced by 25% and after sixty (60) days by 50%.

I may come and pick up any items unsold on the 90th thru 100th days, starting from the date the items are priced; If the original price set by CP & Company was $25.00 or more. All items not picked up by the 100th day, or of a lesser dollar amount will be donated.

For consignors who choose to receive their payments as cash, payments are available during normal business hours by presenting a picture ID for any amount due below $75. Checks are printed on the first of each month for consignors owed $75 or more and are available for pickup in store after the 1st. Consignors may choose to receive their monies owed as store credit, and will receive an additional 5% of the selling price. There is a one-time charge of 10% of the account balance to switch from store credit to receiving cash.
